

Freshman Advising in the College of Liberal Arts

In April 2011, the departments in the College voted on their preferred option for freshmen advising beginning in Fall 2012.

Option 1: Freshmen advising within the department - African American Studies, Art & Art History, Classics, History, International Studies, Music, Philosophy and Religion, Physics & Astronomy, and Theatre Arts

Option 2: Hybrid model with advising freshmen in Center for Student Success & First Year Experience and formal department mentorship - Biology, Chemistry & Biochemistry, Economics, Mathematics, Modern Languages, Political Science, and Public Policy Leadership

Option 3: Freshmen advising in the Center for Student Success & First Year Experience - English, Liberal Studies, Psychology, Sociology & Anthropology, and Southern Studies
